In addition to an Act, intituled "An Act fixing the Military peace establishment of the United States."

1 Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled,
3 That there be added to the regiment of artillery, two teachers
4 of music, whose pay, rations, and clothing shall be the same as 5 is by law allowed to the teachers of music in the regiments of in-
6 fantry in the service of the United States.

1 SECT. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President of the 2 United States be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint one
3 teacher of the French language, and one teacher of drawing, to

4 be attached to the corps of engineers, whose compensation shall 5 not exceed the pay and emolument of a captain in the line of the 6 army.

1 SECT. 3. And be it further enacted, That the President of the 2 United States be, and he is hereby authorized to allow to the 3 pay-master of the army, the adjutant and inspector of the army,
4 and the military agent at Philadelphia, such sums, not exceeding,
5 in the whole, two thousand dollars, for clerk-hire, as their 6 respective duties may, in his opinion, reasonably require.
